Abstract:-

The Indian diaspora today constitutes an important and in some respect unique, force in world culture. The origin of the modern Indian diaspora lie mainly in the subjugation of India by the british and its incorporation in to the British empire. Indians were taken over as indentured labor to for- flung parts of the empire in the 19th century, a circumstance to which the modern Indian populations of Fiji, Mauritius, Guyana, Trinidad, Surinom, Malaysia, South Africa, Sri Lanka, and other places albeit in their own peculiar ways over two million Indian men fought on behalf of the empire in numerous wars, including the two world wars, and some remained behind to claim the land on which they fought as their own.

Introduction:-

Who and what is an Indian? How we are to characterize the Indian diasporic community as “Indian” given that it is constituted of such diverse elements as South Asian, Hong Kong, Russians, Canadian Sikhs lor shall we say sikh Canadians, Punjabi Mexican Californians, Guajarati, East Africans, now settled in the US by way of England, South African, Hindus and so forth in the United States, at least the Indian community has occupied a place of considerable privilege and many Indians could be defect the moment rcognition that ‘Indianans’ and being “American” do not always happily coincide in recent years with a declining economy on the one hand, and the conversation of Indians in clusters that put them a part on the hand, and have for the first time become the targets of racial attacks. A gang of white teenagers operating in New Jersey who have already been responsible for several violent, crimes against Indians.

Discussion:-

According to history first NRI- Romani people traditionally known as Gypsies. They origineted from Indian sub continent and migrated to North-West in the 11th Century. Generally Romani people form central Indian.
The Indian merchant Diaspora in Central Asia and Persia emerged in the 16\textsuperscript{th} Century. Volga was first place in Russia where an Indian merchant colony was established at early 1610. Russian reported the pleasant of Hindu traders Moscow and it Petersburg in 18\textsuperscript{th} Century. Modern time after British rule many of the poor workers migrated to Mauritius Guyana the Caribbean fizi and East Africa.

After independence form 1970 as the result of oil boom in middle east. many Indians migrated to gulf Country for work contractual Basis. In 1990 –IT Boom’s in world. Made maximum Indians IT talent migrate to USA. Today USA has the 3\textsuperscript{rd} largest number of Indian.

1999 – 57,00 Indians in U.S.A

In Today India has become 2\textsuperscript{nd} Largest Country to send his standers for higher education. After China. Among the world’s largest sending Country for tertiary student. Today Indian Doctor, Teachers, Engineer played in the important role in the development of there country 1960. East African forcely moved the Indian out of the country migration the country these people another migrated to Britain, India, U.S.A, Canada.

Kinglesy Davis (1968) puts it in the Indian context ----. Pressure to emigrate has always been great enough to provide a stream of emigrants much larger than the actual given opportunities. And Tinkers(1977) puts it, there in a combination of push and pull. The push in adequate opportunity in South Asia and the pull of the better prospects in the west.

Overseas emigration of Indian may be examined in terms of three phase –

a) The ancient and the medieval
b) The colonial
c) The post – colonial phase

Indians have been migrating to various parts of the world form ages immemorial. The earliest emigration of Indians may be traced to the trade and religions contacts with other civilizations like the Greek and Mesopotamia.
Later on there are also instances of the Buddhist monks spreading the religion and religious gospels across the South and South East Asia.

Slavery system was banned by the British In 1830 which created resulted in acute labor shortage in sugar plantations the British and European colonies. This situation developed indenture form of labor in Western Bihar, Uttar Pradesh, Bengal and Orissa. The system of indenture labor come up initially to overcome the labor shortage following the ban on slavery. But the life as plantation labor. Was a new system of slavery. Initial emigration under indentured system was in there destinatims –

b) The Pacific Ocean – Fiji
c) The Caribbean Sea – Trinidad, Guyana, Surinam.

The migration in the post colonial period was entirely different. Here the migrants are from the middle-class with instruction in English and were skilled. Post Independent India educational system produced professionals who outnumbered the aviability of jobs that can absorb them.

As for the recent statistics of the Indian Diaspora, according to Ramesh (India Today Nov.1998) the true overseas Indian Community. The Diaspora is probably around 15 million strong. There 15 million fall in to the broad categories, Roughly 5 million in Nepal and Sri Lanka, 3 million Mauritius, Fiji, South Africa, Trinidad, Guyana and Surinam. 3 Million in the Us, UK, Canada and Netherlands, 2.5 million in East Asia.

These it can be concluded that although there are few merits like flow of foreign Currency racsing the par capita income and living status in the State like Gujarat, Haryana, Punjab, Kerala, etc.

Establishment of educational institution, Hospitals and Industries leading to growth and development but on the other hand the list of demerits cannot be neglected like.
The Indian culture which was a saving investment loving has been very badly affected by the impact of Diaspora which has changed the mind set up. This led to spend thrift tendency and increase in loan culture.

Easy availability of surrogate wombs, increase in abandant chaise of donor are result are influences of western culture in Indian society. India in now booming centre of a fertility market with its reproductive tourism industry Reported by estimated at Rs. 25,000 corers today.

Conclusion:- Diaspora has increased the clinics to estimated 200,00 clinics across the country. After business process, knowledge process, legal process outsourcing Genetic, Pool banks of India are the latest outsourcing industry from India lack of any law to regulate these practices is attracting both froenger and non resident Indian.
