An Ideal Woman

A Woman has two senses flower and fire.
Flower reflects love, affection, kindness and so on;
Fire reflects anger, struggle, hatred and so on;
These two things make her what she is;
Situation and surroundings mould her character.

A woman should be a beginning of success

A woman should be end of fulfillment.

A woman should be a creator of good.

A woman should be a destroyer of evil.

“Obedience and Honesty” are the women's property.

“Women's rights and education” are their priority.

“Will power and knowledge” are the way of prosperity.

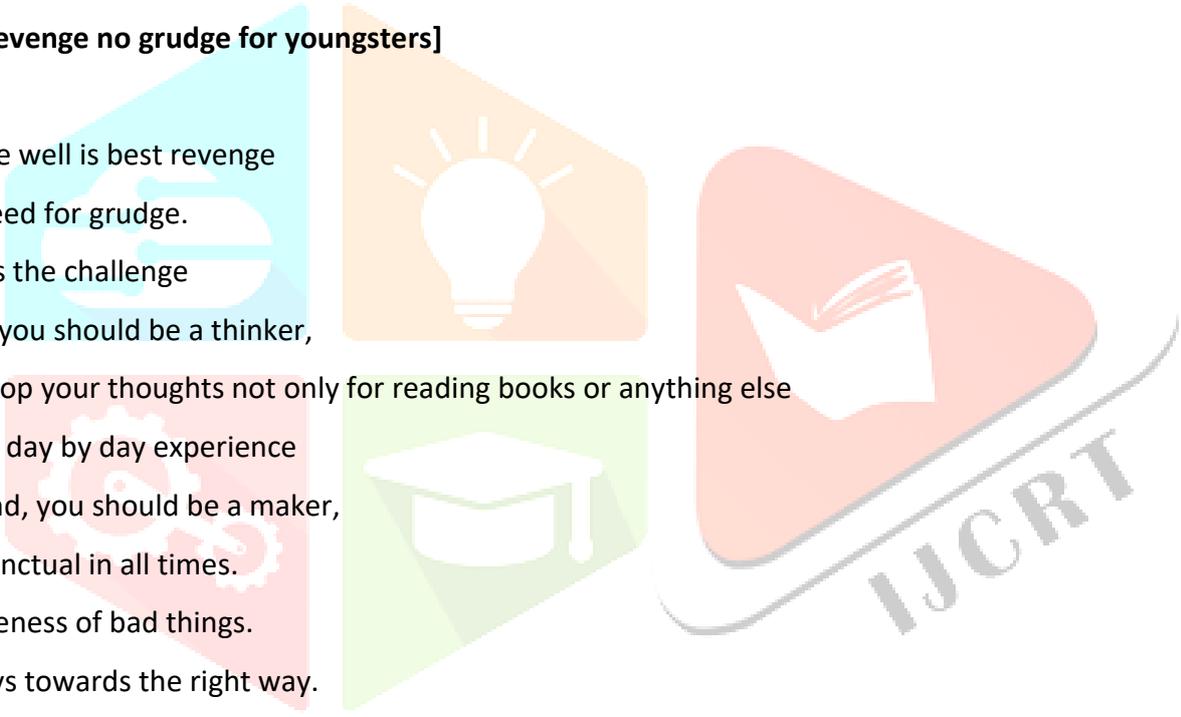

These are the great things of women's identity.

At the same time should not forget her responsibility.

Women's day is not only the celebration of women's freedom but also insists that the importance of women's individuality and writing for our society.

BEAUTY FLOWER [Red Rose]

O! Flower you are pretty,
I am describing your petal beauty,
Show some pity, as
I am empty when I see your beauty,
 It's exciting moment
 Whenever I look at flower's petal beauty,
 I would like to eat petal sweaty,
 I am lover of nature not for statement but for clarity.

MOTIVATIONAL QUOTES[No revenge no grudge for youngsters]

To live well is best revenge
No need for grudge.
This is the challenge
First, you should be a thinker,
Develop your thoughts not only for reading books or anything else
Learn day by day experience
Second, you should be a maker,
Be punctual in all times.
Awareness of bad things.
Always towards the right way.
These are proper assuredly
You are the "achiever"

"Achievers are not born they are made by struggle and tribulation"
